New assistant principal named for Lakewood Middle

Blue Valley School Improvement Specialist Jamie Haden has been chosen to be assistant principal at Lakewood Middle School. Haden started in the district in 2001, working as a special education teacher at Lakewood Elementary. She served as a school improvement specialist during the 2008-09 school year. She begins her new role Aug. 1.

Haden received her bachelor's degree in elementary education from Kansas State University. She received her master's degree in special education from the University of Kansas and her master's in administration from Baker University.

"Both in her work as a special education teacher and in her role as a school improvement specialist, Jamie has distinguished herself and will make a great addition to the Lakewood Middle School community," said Jim Payne, executive director of Human Resource Services.
