Blue Valley North student earns National Achievement Scholarship

A Blue Valley North senior was recently named a recipient of a National Achievement $2,500 Scholarship from the National Achievement Scholarship Program. Gabriel Long earned the $2,500 scholarship, which is supported by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and can be used for college undergraduate study. The National Achievement Scholarship Program is an academic competition for scholastically talented black high school students.

Of the 1,600 semi-finalists chosen in the fall, about 1,300 were named finalists and 700 students received National Achievement $2,500 Scholarships.

The National Achievement Scholarship Program is conducted by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.
