Coach Steve Rampy leaving Blue Valley High

Blue Valley High teacher and head football coach Steve Rampy is leaving Blue Valley. Rampy has accepted the offensive coordinator position at Pittsburg State University and will not return to Blue Valley second semester.

Rampy came to the district in 1981 and was named the head football coach in 1985. The Blue Valley Tigers have a long list of accomplishments under Rampy's leadership:

- East Kansas League Championship in 1986, 1988, 1991, 1992, 1998, 2003, 2005, 2006, & 2008
- District Championships in 1986, 1987, 1991, 1992, 1995, 1997, 1998, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2008, & 2009
- Kansas State Runner-up in 1992, 1995, 1997, & 2005
- Kansas State Championship in 1991, 1998, 2003, & 2006

“This is a tremendous opportunity for Steve,” Blue Valley High Athletic Director Bob Whitehead said. “Steve has been a very influential member of our school community, BVHS staff, and PE Department. He has built Blue Valley High School's football program into one of the most respected high school program in the state of Kansas.”

The search for a new head coach will begin after winter break.
