Blue Valley to dedicate Timber Creek Elementary

The Blue Valley School District will officially honor its 20th elementary school, Timber Creek Elementary, on Friday, October 2. The district will recognize the opening of Timber Creek in a festive ceremony at 2 p.m. at the school, 16451 Flint Street in Overland Park.

In addition to remarks from Blue Valley Board of Education President Steve Klika, Superintendent Tom Trigg, Timber Creek Principal Pam Bakke, and PTA President Jennifer Boutte, the celebration will also include musical presentations from students. U.S. Representative Dennis Moore has also been invited to speak.

“We are thrilled to honor the opening of Timber Creek Elementary,” Trigg said. “Timber Creek is a wonderful addition to our Blue Valley family. I am confident that together the parents, staff and students of Timber Creek will make this an excellent environment for learning.”
