Blue Valley students succeed at KCATM Mathletics competition

Numerous Blue Valley elementary students participated in the Kansas City Area Teachers of Math (KCATM) Mathletics competition, held at Olathe East High School earlier this month. The fifth grade team from Stanley Elementary placed first in the fifth grade team competition. Members of the team are: Micah Slagle, Nicholas Schuler and Jack Johnston. Other schools placing in this competition were Mission Trail Elementary, second place; Heartland Elementary, tied for third place; Prairie Star Elementary, tied for fourth place; Sunrise Point and Timber Creek elementary schools, tied for fifth place.

In the fourth grade team competition, Prairie Star Elementary tied for first place. Members of this team are George Cochran, Clare Hyland and Annie Shull. Cedar Hills, Harmony and Lakewood elementary schools tied for second place. Mission Trail, Stanley and Sunrise Point tied for third place. Cottonwood Point and Overland Trail elementary schools tied for fourth place.

Individually, Blue Valley students also had great success. Lucy Li from Valley Park and Alex Wang from Sunrise Point tied for first place in the fifth grade individual competition. Aivant Goyal from Sunset Ridge tied for second place. Sankalp Gupta from Cottonwood Point placed third, and Tim Sun from Lakewood Elementary placed fifth.

In the fourth grade individual competition Srivats Narayanan from Sunset Ridge placed first. Alex Thill from Heartland Elementary placed second and Rohit Ramachandran from Valley Park placed fourth.

Congratulations, Blue Valley students, for your excellent math results!
