Blue Valley North drama teacher inducted into national hall of fame

Max Brown, Blue Valley North drama teacher and performing arts chair, has been named to the National Educational Theatre Association's Hall of Fame. A Blue Valley employee since 1984, Brown also serves as director of the Kansas State Chapter of the Educational Theatre Association.

"It's an honor to be recognized for my life's work," said Brown. "I am humbled."

Brown received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Kansas and his Ph.D. from New York University. During his career in education, he has served on the Kansas Department of Education curriculum committee. In addition to the National Educational Theatre Association honor, Brown was also inducted into the Kansas Thespians Hall of Fame in 2006.

Brown will be recognized at the Educational Theatre Association's Annual Conference and Hall of Fame awards ceremony in September in New York City, NY.
