Blue Valley to host Respecting Boundaries event for middle school students and parents

On Thursday, March 4 from 6:30-8 p.m. the Blue Valley School District will be hosting a workshop for middle school students and parents about recognizing healthy peer relationships. The event is being conducted in collaboration with the Blue Valley Diversity Team, the Metropolitan Organization to Counteract Sexual Assault (MOCSA), and SAFEHOME, an organization for abused women and children.

The event is for students in grades 6-8 in the district and will be held at Overland Trail Middle, 6201 W. 133rd St. in Overland Park. The 90 minute workshop is designed to help middle school students and their parents learn skills and strategies to maintain positive social interactions. Seating is limited and parents must accompany their child. Babysitting is not provided. Please register online by Mar. 1 by going to www.bluevalleyk12.org and clicking on Hot Topics and then Diversity Spring Event.
